To

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore.

Sir,

In forwarding, herewith, the marginally noted Bills on account of remuneration due to Rao. G. C. Papanna, for April, May, June and July 1892, for having carried liquor from the Government Central Distillery to the various Bonded Depôts in the Mysore State, I have the honor to request that the Bills may be sanctioned and forwarded to the Comptroller for audit, the charge being debited to the amount of rental collected from arrack Rent farmers.

I. Bill on account of remuneration for issues of liquor to the Bonded Depôt in the Bangalore town.

II. Bill-do-do- to the Bonded Depôts in all the Districts, except Bangalore District.

III Bill-do-do- to the Depôts in the Bangalore District in April 1892.

2. For having carried liquor, in April 1892, to the Depôts in the Bangalore District, the remuneration is calculated by Rao. G. C. Papanna at 1½ annas per gallon, which I have admitted, considering it to be a fair rate.

3. For the savings accrued in Bonded Depôts from the wastage at 2% allowed to Rao. G. C. Papanna on the quantity of liquor.

liquor removed from the Distillery, under Condition (3) of his Contract Bond, he claims compensation at Rupees 4-10-6 for Guaidan and at Rupees 4-8-6 for Gulwad, on the ground that the liquor thus saved, has been sold by Government to arrack Vend farmers at such rates. I am of opinion that he is entitled only to the Value of such liquor at 10½ annas per gallon of 26° U. P., as Govt. alone is entitled to duty. On the decision of Government on this point, a separate bill will be submitted for the amount due to him under this head.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Dated 16 September 1892.

General No. 1622

No. 91.

His Lo.: 80, dated 14th instant.

In reply observes that the Excise Commissioner in his D. C. dated 30 April 1892 in question, has not stated that 2% for wastage will be allowed on the same conditions as under the arrack Contract which closed on 31st March 1892.

2. Under the old contract, Messrs L. C. Papanmah & Co did not receive duty &c at Rupees 4-12- per gallon on account of wastage at 2%

2%, as stated in the letter under reference, but on the duty payable by them as Wholesale Vendors (at Rs 3-5-0 per gallon of 20° U.P.) for the liquor issued to them from the Distillery, a deduction of 2 per cent was allowed them.

3. The past system is different from the present. In the former the liquor issued to the Contractors as Wholesale Vendors, was duty paid, and therefore the deduction of 2% was correctly made from the duty payable by them at Rs 3-5-0 per gallon of 20° U.P. In the latter, Mr. L. C. Papanaik, as Government Contractor of Bonded Depots, carries liquor from the Distillery under bond, i.e. free of duty. But it is the liquor for which the price at 10½ annas per gallon of 20° U.P. has been paid by Government to the Manufacturer. On such liquor the Government Contractor is allowed a deduction of 2% for wastage. The value of it being only 10½ annas per gallon of 20° U.P. he is entitled only to such value for the liquor saved in the wastage allowance and utilized by Government for issue to arrack Vend Farmers or separate shopkeepers, Government alone being entitled to the duty payable on it.

Sir,

In continuation of this office —
No. 2903/154, dated 30th November 1892, I have the honor to state that Mr: C. Papannah explains that nearly 5500 Rupees may be realized from the English Still, engine &c. belonging to messrs: — C. Papannah & Co: and which remain at the distillery undisposed of, and that Rs 1500 are — due to them by messrs: Parry & Co: on account of plant purchased by them, and that after deducting these two items, the arrears due by the several members of the firm, are as follows: —

Mr: C. Papannah - 3,640-5-10.
Mr: Davy — - 8,276-5-1.
Mr: Smith — 11,009-0-8
22,925-11-7

I have addressed Messrs: Davy and Smith to arrange for the payment of their dues without delay.

2. Messrs: Parry & Co; have been requested to remit the balance of Rupees 1500 due by them them to Messrs: C. Papannah & Co:, and I — have asked the Distillery Officer to dispose of the English Still, engine &c. at the — Distillery through the Agent of Messrs: C. Papannah & Co; as early as practicable.

From

To

of Mysore.

Sir,

In reply to your docket No. 13577, dated 15th instant, I have the honor to state that when I, in the communications in question, requested that orders might be issued to the Comptroller to refund to Mr. C. Pappan the amounts of his bills for October and November 1892, which have been credited towards the liquidation of the arrears due by the late Arrack Contractors, it was not my intention to ignore the orders of Government in Proceedings No. 9841/45-92, dated 3rd January 1893, to collect the arrears of the late Contract, as early as possible, in the best way expedient. In my letters Nos. 3392/187, dated 14th & 21st December 1892, and 3981/240, dated 26th January 1893, I have explained how the arrears &c., individually due by each of the members of the firm may be recovered, and that the amount due by Wl. Pappamah on account of the late Arrack Contract, will be deducted from the amount of his bill for December 1892.
A.F. 177-92

2. As regards the proposal to make proportionate deductions in the cheques given to Messrs Parry and Co. for the value of liquor issued from the Central Distillery, on account of the shares of Messrs F.W. Smith and V. Davy in the present Arrack Contract, towards the recovery of the arrears due due by them for the late Contract. Mr. Davy has promised to settle the matter on his return from Madras. The result of his settlement will be duly reported.

3. Under such circumstances, I beg to suggest that the amounts of Mr. C. Pappamah's bills for October, November and December 1892, may be ordered to be disbursed to him, the amount of Rs 3,640-5-10 individually due by him, being deducted and credited towards the arrears of the late Arrack Contract.
